The Payne bill reduces the tariff on anchors. More encouragement for the Boat line.

The twelve weeks which Edward Henry Harriman spent in the bounding west, seem to have filled him with buoyancy, health and conversation.

Leslie M. Shaw, ex-secretary of the treasury, admits that the new tariff bill is beyond his understanding—indicating that the Big Interests no longer take Mr. Shaw into their confidence.

"Hoch der Crazy Snake," the slogan of the Oklahoma soldiers who are seeking the foxy old chief in his hiding place in the hills, has no special terror for the leader of the Indian uprising. He has heard something like that before. Mrs. Crazy Snake's name is Hoc-Du-Chee.

President Zelaya of Nicaragua, seems to imagine that because Mr. Roosevelt has gone to Africa, he has nothing to fear from the "big stick." There are some indications that he will find a shingle wielded by a man of Mr. Taft's size and weight quite as effective as a big stick in the hands of a man of less avoirdupois.

Dr. Elliot, the ex-president of Harvard, declines the opportunity to become ambassador to Great Britain, says the Kansas City Times, but in doing so he is not guilty of anything inelegant as Mr. Newberry's "No velvet pants for me." Indeed it would be quite safe to say that "pants" is a word which Dr. Elliot never used in his whole life—that is, in the sense of trousers.

It is doubtful if any man ever set out upon a journey with the good wishes of more of his fellow countrymen than Theodore Roosevelt took with him when he sailed for Africa. His is a decided personality and his methods have been, to use his own overworked phrase, strenuous, but few men have inspired so many people with a belief in their sincerity of purpose, and while he has made many bitter enemies, the great majority of his fellow-countrymen wish him a pleasant journey and a safe return.

The declaration of the new attorney general, George W. Wickersham, that there will be no diminution of the energy and fidelity with which this administration will investigate and prosecute violations of the anti-trust law, will prove a welcome assurance to many people who have been perturbed over the widely circulated but ill-founded reports that President Taft and his associates would deviate widely from the policy of his predecessor and wink at the infractions of the law by corporations of great wealth.

PERSONAL.

Serafino Archibueque is in town on business today from his home at Sappelo.

Louis Shupp, Nick Papen and Will Rogers composed a party of hunters who left town for the La Cueva neighborhood this morning.

Carlos Dunn, Walter B. Hoke and A. G. Adams drove out to Gascon today, intending to return here tomorrow.

John Mellhouse and sister, the latter in very poor health, departed this afternoon for the old family home in Olivia, Minn.

Miss Fay Walters of Alva, Okla., departed for that place today. She had been the guest of Miss Vera Gehring for some weeks.

Arthur W. Cooley, assistant attorney general of the United States, who had been a quiet but industrious visitor to Las Vegas for two days, staying at Hotel Castaneda, departed for Las Cruces, N. M., this afternoon, accompanied by Attorney H. B. Holt, of that City of Crosses.

Made from cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes. All the ingredients of Dr. Price's Baking Powder are printed on the label. They are pure, healthful and proper.

When baking powders are peddled or demonstrated, examine their labels. You will find they are not made from cream of tartar. You don't want them

Rheumatism.
More than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed, and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness. The medicines usually given internally for rheumatism are poisonous or very strong medicines. They are worse than useless in cases of chronic and muscular rheumatism. For sale by all dealers.
